Secret Witness Reward

Corning Police Department is seeking your assistance and Tehama County Secret Witness is offering a reward up to $5000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person, or persons responsible for the ARMED ROBBERY, that occurred around May 24, 2011 at Daisy's Ice Cream Shop in Corning.

SUMMARY OF INCIDENT:

On Tuesday, May 24, 2011 at about 2:09 p.m., two male Hispanics entered the Daisy's Ice Cream Shop located at 1309 Solano Street in Corning. Both suspects were armed with pistols and wearing white dust masks over their faces. The suspect zipped tied the owner and a customer hands behind their backs. An undisclosed amount of money was taken from the cash register and gold jewelry was taken from a glass display case.

Both suspects fled on foot out the back door of the business. The owner and his customer were then able to leave the shop and ran to the business next door to call the police. An area check for the suspects was conducted at the time of this incident but they were not located.

At the time of this incident the suspect were described as two males in their twenties, wearing all dark clothing.

Neither the owner nor his customer was injured during the ordeal.

Despite all investigative efforts, this crime has not been solved. If you have any information in regards to this incident you are encouraged to contact the Corning Police Department at 824-7000 or Tehama County Secret Witness at 529-1268.
